

1997 original texts	2007 proposed Law 15 (for publication)
[Proposed deletions highlighted in yellow] Law 15A - If players play a board not designated for them to play in the current round: Law 15A1 - The Director normally allows the score to stand if none of the four players have previously played the board. Law 15A2 - The Director may require both pairs to play the correct board against one another later. Law 15B - If any player plays a board he has previously played, with the correct opponents or otherwise, his second score on the board is cancelled both for his side and his opponents, and the Director shall award an artificial adjusted score to the contestants deprived of the opportunity to earn a valid score. Law 15C - If, during the auction period, the Director discovers that a contestant is playing a board not designated for him to play in the current round, he shall cancel the auction, ensure that the correct contestants are seated and that they are informed of their rights both now and at future rounds. A second auction begins. Players must repeat calls they made previously. If any call differs in any way from the corresponding call in the first auction, the Director shall cancel the board. Otherwise, play continues normally. Law 74A2 - A player should carefully avoid any remark or	[Proposed additions and changes highlighted in yellow] LAW 15 - PLAY OF A WRONG BOARD A. Players Have Not Previously Played Board If players play a board not designated for them to play in the current round (but see C): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Director normally allows the score to stand if none of the four players have previously played the board. 2. The Director may require both pairs to play the correct board against one another later. B. One or More Players Have Previously Played Board If any player plays a board he has previously played, with the correct opponents or otherwise, his second score on the board is cancelled both for his side and his opponents, and the Director shall award an artificial adjusted score to the contestants deprived of the opportunity to earn a valid score. C. Discovered during Auction If, during the auction period, the Director discovers that a contestant is playing a board not designated for him to play in the current round, he shall cancel the auction, ensure that the correct contestants are seated and that they are informed of their rights both now and at future rounds. A second auction begins. Players must repeat the calls they made previously. If any call differs in any way from the corresponding call in the first auction the Director shall cancel the board. Otherwise play continues normally. The Director may award a procedural penalty (and an adjusted score) if of the action that might cause annoyance or embarrassment to another player or might interfere with the enjoyment of the game.

opinion that there has been a purposeful attempt by either side to preclude normal play of the board.