Premature Play or Lead to Next Trick When a defender leads to the next trick before his partner has played to the current trick, or plays out of turn before his partner has played, the card so led or played becomes a major penalty card, and declarer selects one of the following options. He may: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. require offender's partner to play the highest card he holds of the suit led, or 2. require offender's partner to play the lowest card he holds of the suit led, or 3. forbid offender's partner to play a card of another suit specified by declarer. B. Offender's Partner Cannot Comply with Rectification When offender's partner is unable to comply with the rectification selected by declarer he may play any card, as provided in Law 59. C. Declarer or Dummy Has Played <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A defender is not subject to rectification for playing before his partner if declarer has played from both hands, nor if dummy has played a card or has illegally suggested that it be played. A singleton in dummy, or one of cards adjacent in rank of the same suit, is not considered to be played until declarer has instructed (or indicated*) the play. 2. A premature play (not a lead) by declarer or dummy is a played card and may not be withdrawn. * as by a gesture or nod LAW 58 - SIMULTANEOUS LEADS OR PLAYS

Law 58A - A lead or play made simultaneously with another player's legal lead or play is deemed to be subsequent to it. Law 58B - If a player leads or plays two or more cards simultaneously: Law 58B1 - If only one card is visible, that card is played; all other cards are picked up without penalty. Law 58B2 - If more than one card is visible, the player designates the card he proposes to play; when he is a defender, each other card exposed becomes a penalty card (see Law 50). Law 58B3 - After a player withdraws a visible card, an opponent who subsequently played to that card may withdraw his play and substitute another without penalty (see Law 16C). Law 58B4 - If the simultaneous play remains undiscovered until both sides have played to the next trick, Law 67 applies. Law 59 - A player may play any otherwise legal card if he is unable to lead or play as required to comply with a penalty, whether because he holds no card of the required suit, or because he has only cards of a suit he is prohibited from leading, or because he is obliged to follow suit. Law 60A1 - A play by a member of the non-offending side	A. Simultaneous Plays by Two Players A lead or play made simultaneously with another player's legal lead or play is deemed to be subsequent to it. B. Simultaneous Cards from One Hand If a player leads or plays two or more cards simultaneously: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. If only one card is visible, that card is played; all other cards are picked up and there is no further rectification (see Law 47F). 2. If more than one card is visible, the player designates the card he proposes to play; when he is a defender, each other card exposed becomes a penalty card (see Law 50). 3. After a player withdraws a visible card, an opponent who subsequently played to that card may withdraw his play and substitute another without further rectification (but see Law 16D). 4. If the simultaneous play remains undiscovered until both sides have played to the next trick, Law 67 applies. LAW 59 - INABILITY TO LEAD OR PLAY AS REQUIRED A player may play any otherwise legal card if he is unable to lead or play as required to comply with a rectification, whether because he holds no card of the required suit, or because he has only cards of a suit he is prohibited from leading, or because he is obliged to follow suit. LAW 60 - PLAY AFTER AN ILLEGAL PLAY A.
